

(g) For the purposes of the above Export Trade Activities and Methods of Operation, all references to "years of operation" shall mean years beginning on the date the first tranche opens, and ending on the day before the anniversary of that date.

Definitions

"Member" means a member of RMA who has been certified as a "Member" within the meaning of Section 325.1(l) of the Regulations and as listed in Attachment I. Members must sign the Operating Agreement of the RMA/ETCR in order to participate in the certified activities. Any U.S. company that has been actively engaged in the exportation of rice from the United States in each of the past two calendar years, and that wishes to participate in the activities covered by this certificate, may join RMA's membership by executing the Operating Agreement, paying a non-refundable membership fee of $3,000 per calendar year, and requesting that RMA file for an amending certificate. Membership will remain open until December 31, 1997, and thereafter, shall be open to qualified companies during specified months in the year. Any RMA member that is not a listed Member may join RMA's export trade certificate of review by requesting that RMA file for an amended certificate. All of the rights of Members would become effective as of the date of approval of their Membership by the Department of Commerce. A Member may withdraw from coverage under this certificate at any time by giving written notice to RMA, a copy of which RMA will promptly transmit to the Secretary of Commerce and the Attorney General.
